Tri-County High School Exhibition

The Art Department Gallery, Wayne State University, Detroit, MI is pleased to present Tri-County High School Exhibition. The exhibition dates are March 2 through March 23, 2012. The exhibition will feature approximately fifty artworks by high school students from Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties.

Selected artworks were created by students from the following high schools: East Detroit High School, Ernest W. Seaholm High School, Frankel Jewish Academy, Grosse Pointe North High School, Grosse Pointe South High School, Lake Orion Community High School, Lamphere High School, L'Anse Creuse High School, New Haven High School, Rochester High School and Stoney Creek High School.

All events are free and open to the general public. The Art Department Gallery is located in the Art Building on the campus of Wayne State University, near the intersection of Cass Avenue and Kirby Street.

The James Pearson Duffy Department of Art and Art History is a division of Wayne State's College of Fine, Performing and Communication Arts, educating the next generation of visual artists, designers and art historians. Wayne State University, located in the heart of Detroit's midtown cultural center, is a premier urban research university offering more than 350 academic programs through 13 schools and colleges to more than 31,000 students.
