Wayne State University's Art Department Gallery is pleased to announce the presentation of 2010 WSU Undergraduate Exhibition from April 2nd through April 30th, 2010. This exhibition features over 200 works of art and design by undergraduate students studying in one of WSU's thirteen studio areas within the James Pearson Duffy Department of Art and Art History, including:

SCULPTURE	PAINTING	METALS	ELECTRONIC ARTS
PRINTMAKING	GRAPHIC DESIGN	CERAMICS	INDUSTRIAL DESIGN
FIBERS	FASHION DESIGN	PHOTOGRAPHY	INTERIOR DESIGN
DRAWING

The diversity in media is accompanied by a wide variety of approaches, and most works are available for purchase. Come and see why the James Pearson Duffy Department of Art and Art History at Wayne State University is the choice for some of the region's finest artists!

The exhibition's opening reception is on Friday, April 2nd, from 5:00 to 8:00PM. In addition to the opening reception, there will be a studio open house in the Art Building from 5:45-6:45PM, and scholarship and award recipients will be announced at 7:00PM. All events are free and open to the general public. The Art Department Gallery is located in the Art Building on the campus of Wayne State University, near the intersection of Cass Avenue and Kirby Street. Metered street parking is available, and is free after 6:00PM.
