The James Pearson Duffy Department of Art and Art History's
Art Department Gallery is pleased to present

2012 WSU Undergraduate Exhibition

The James Pearson Duffy Department of Art & Art History is pleased to announce the annual WSU Undergraduate Exhibition at the Art Department Gallery, April 13 through May 11. This exhibition features approximately 150 works of art and design by undergraduate students chosen from the department's thirteen studio areas.

The opening reception will be held on Friday, April 13, from 5:00 to 8:00PM and will include the 2012 WSU Scholarship Awards presentation. Award recipients will be announced at 6:30PM in the gallery. Public voting for the 2012 WSU Campus Art Installation Award will also commence at 5:00PM. Please visit <http://go.wayne.edu/artaward> for more information.

A closing reception will be held on Friday, May 11, from 5:00 to 8:00PM. At the closing reception, the following awards will be given to students for their outstanding art and design works in the exhibition: Best of Show, First Place and Honorable Mention. This year's guest jurors are Dan Grascuck and William Porter. Awards will also be given to the WSU Campus Art Installation Award winners. All award announcements will begin at 6:30PM.

The James Pearson Duffy Department of Art and Art History is a division of Wayne State's College of Fine, Performing and Communication Arts, educating the next generation of visual artists, designers and art historians. Wayne State University, located in the heart of Detroit's midtown cultural center, is a premier urban research university offering more than 350 academic programs through 13 schools and colleges to more than 31,000 students.
