2013 WSU Undergraduate Exhibition

The James Pearson Duffy Department of Art & Art History is pleased to announce its annual WSU Undergraduate Exhibition at the Art Department Gallery, April 12 through May 10. This exhibition features approximately 150 works of art and design by undergraduate students chosen from the department's thirteen studio areas.

The opening reception will be held on Friday, April 12, from 5:00 to 8:00PM and will include the 2013 WSU Scholarship Awards presentation at 6:30PM. Awards will also be given to students for their outstanding fine art and design works in the exhibition.

The James Pearson Duffy Department of Art and Art History is a division of Wayne State's College of Fine, Performing and Communication Arts, educating the next generation of visual artists, designers and art historians. Wayne State University, located in the heart of Detroit's midtown cultural center, is a premier urban research university offering more than 350 academic programs through 13 schools and colleges to more than 31,000 students.
