The James Pearson Duffy Department of Art and Art History is pleased to present 2019 MOBILE ARTS WORKSHOP EXHIBITION at the Art Department Gallery, September 6 through October 4, 2019 with an opening reception on Friday, September 6, 5-8PM. This event is free and open to the general public.

Mobile Arts Detroit held abstract art workshops at ten community sites, July 29 through August 12, 2019. Participants explored design fundamentals with emphasis on shape, color, and texture. Each workshop included warm-up exercises followed by extensive collaborative projects using plywood, paint, and reclaimed materials. Local musicians working in a variety of genres also performed throughout the duration of each workshop. The completed artworks were collected for the exhibition and will be returned to each site after its closing date.

Artworks in the exhibition were created by participants ranging from youth to seniors at the following Detroit centers and parks: Roberto Clemente Recreation Center, Clark Park Coalition, Bushnell Congregational Church, Patton Recreation Center, Adams Butzel Recreation Complex, Butzel Family Recreation Center, Farwell Recreation Center, Mack Alive, and Detroit Police Department 10th Precinct.

More information and images can be found on the department’s website, and on the Mobile Arts Detroit and Art at Wayne Detroit facebook pages.
